House Defeats Liquor Bill In West Virginia

Resolution Rejected By 2 Votes; Plan On Convention Looms

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Liquor by the drink went down the drain in the West Virginia House twice in four days, but it keeps coming back up.

Twice now, the wets have failed to muster the two-thirds House majority they needed to put the issue on the 1962 election ballot. The resolution already had been voted 61-39 in favor of it. This was six votes shy of the needed 67. Supporters managed to get a re-vote scheduled for Monday, then went to work over the weekend trying to change enough votes to turn failure into success.

On the re-vote yesterday, it was 65-35 for the resolution. It had made a net gain of four votes but still failed by two.

Five delegates who had voted nay Friday switched to yea yesterday. But one of Friday's supporters, Del. Elizabeth Dewry, D-McDowell, voted against the measure yesterday.

The vote yesterday was final. This particular resolution cannot come up again.

But now a new approach is in the making. Del. Kenneth Auvin, D-Barbour, says he is going to introduce a bill aimed at holding a constitutional convention to consider whether the liquor provisions of the present constitution should be overhauled.

Unlike the resolution to submit a constitutional amendment directly to the voters, the bill planned by Auvin could be passed by a simple majority in each house — just one more than half of those present.

But a constitutional amendment by Auvin's route would involve three elections instead of one. First there would be an election on whether to hold a convention. If that vote were favorable, there would then be an election to pick convention delegates.

Eyes Minimum Wage Measure

Senate Will End Hearings On Depressed Areas Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking subcommittee ends hearings today on the $309.5-million depressed areas bill while the Senate Labor subcommittee gets to work on President Kennedy's proposal for a higher minimum wage.

Administration leaders hope for a faster pace of Senate action on the President's program after a harmonious caucus of Democratic senators Monday.

Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said he thought the depressed areas bill should be cleared for floor action next week and that major administration bills should be ready to follow in a steady stream.

House subcommittees also are working on the minimum wage and depressed areas bills. A House Labor subcommittee

Tavern Group Given Data On 'Posting' Law

Forty East Liverpool tavern operators met Monday night with Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff to hear an explanation of the old "posting law" invoked by the court and the city administration to ban sale of alcohol to eight men classed as habitual drinkers.

Arranged at the tavern-owners' request, the meeting was held in the Fraternal Order of Orioles lodge room.

Judge Chertoff explained in detail the sections of the city code and state law requiring tavern operators and other dispensers of alcoholic drinks to cut off supplies to persons who it has been determined habitually "drink alcohol to excess."

The list of eight singled out by the judge was passed onto Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, who sent out letters to all tavern proprietors.

If one of the "posted" habituals appears in court on an intoxication charge, police will be asked to make an investigation to find where he purchased the alcohol, the judge said. There also will be an investigation in cases where liquor is sold to a person already obviously drunk, he added.

"You men represent an investment of at least a quarter-million dollars," the judge said. "Don't jeopardize your business."

In a standing vote, the group went on record unanimously in support of the action taken by the court and the administration. The men said they are "wholeheartedly in favor" of the action. The tavern owners also suggested the court might find ways of meting out stiffer sentences — including jail terms — to frequent offenders and persons who cause trouble or start fights in taverns.

The tavern owners told the court they might not know by sight all the men named in the "posting" list, for whom sale of drinks was banned. The judge said he will ask the police department to furnish descriptions of the men to the taverns.

Man Will Face Fraud Charge For Job Exam

St. Clair Man Admits Using False Address In Seeking City Post

The Municipal Civil Service Commission Monday night asked Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper to file criminal charges of fraud against a St. Clair Township man who admitted he used a false Lisbon St. address to qualify for an examination for a $315-a-month job at the sewage treatment plant.

The commission asked Cooper to proceed in Municipal Court against Floyd Henry Beatty of Apples Corners, who gave his address as 715 Lisbon St. when filing an application for an exam the commission conducted Feb. 20 for an operator's post at the sewage plant.

The charge is a misdemeanor. Only persons who have been East Liverpool residents for at least six months are eligible for appointment to city posts under classified service.

Summoned before the commission last night at a meeting at City Hall, Beatty admitted he lives at Apples Corners and said he has not resided at the Lisbon St. address "since last spring." However, the commission obtained a signed statement from Robert Roseberry, 715 Lisbon St., who said Beatty "does not now and never did reside" at that address.

Beatty has been employed at the plant for two years in an unclassified post as a laborer. Since he is not under the commission's jurisdiction in that post, it took no action on learning that he now resides outside the city limits.

Beatty ranked third in a field of six who scored passing grades in the exam for the post, but the commission approved a motion to remove his name "because of a fraudulent application."

P. K. Calhoun, clerk, was instructed to certify the names of the three top men on the eligibility list to Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver, who will make an appointment to fill the post vacated in December when Elmer English of Ambrose Ave., resigned to take a bus driver's job.

James E. Nottingham, 721 North St., ranks first and Raymond R. Smith, 422 Vine St., is second. With removal of Beatty's name, Charles R. Weaver, 121 1/2 W. 6th St., was moved into third position, placing him on the list to be certified.

The commission said it started an investigation of Beatty's application after learning that he did not reside at the address he listed.

Living Costs Dip First Time In 12 Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs declined slightly in January — the first drop in 12 months.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today its consumers price index dropped by a tenth of one per cent because of lower prices for clothing, used cars, eggs, milk, fresh fruits and tomatoes.

The index fell to 127.4 from December's record level of 127.5. In the index, 100 represents average prices in 1947-49.

Castro Raps Kennedy In New Attack

Charges Anew U.S. Plotting Overthrow Of Cuban Premier

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's government launched an all-out attack on President Kennedy's administration today and charged anew the United States is plotting to overthrow the Cuban strongman.

The blistering attack was contained in a lengthy note sent Monday night to Latin-American foreign ministers. It was to be distributed later to the Organization of American States and the United Nations.

The Cuban note recalled the invasion charges Castro hurled at the Eisenhower administration a few months ago. Washington denounced those charges as a cover-up to divert the Cuban people's attention from economic troubles at home.

One Latin-American diplomat shrugged off the latest Cuban note as "the same old story" — this time directed at the Kennedy administration.

Foreign Minister Raul Roa charged the United States with plotting a twofold plan to bring down the Castro regime.

The first phase would be an attempt to overthrow Castro before the conference of Western Hemisphere foreign ministers in Quito May 24.

If that fails an alternative plan would create conditions for indirect military aggression masterminded by the Pentagon and the Central Intelligence Agency. This would be masked by a declaration of war against Cuba by Guatemala, Nicaragua or Peru that would permit the setting up of a beachhead on Cuban soil. An artificial provisional government then would be set up in Cuba and probably receive direct military aid.

'Close Friend' Of High Cuba Official Slain

HAVANA (AP) — An army captain described as a close friend and bodyguard to Ernesto Guevara was killed Monday in a street shooting a block from the Cuban economic chief's house.

Whether the shooting was part of an attempt to assassinate Guevara himself was not clear. The government denied it was, although newspapers and radio stations were ordered to suppress the story for hours.

Guevara, 32, appeared unruffled at his installation as Minister of Industries several hours after the shooting.

The dead man was identified as Capt. Hector Salinas. The first official version, issued by the Ministry Investigation Department,

'The Sundowners' Rates Bid

Liz Taylor, Jack Lemmon Gain Oscar Nominations

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Liz Taylor, Jack Lemmon and a family movie, "The Sundowners," rated early favorites today as Hollywood's 33rd annual Oscar derby was off and running.

For the beautiful Liz, her Academy Award nomination Monday as top actress was her fourth straight. Ironically, it came in a picture—"Butterfield 8"—which she balked at doing.

"It's pornographic," she once confided to a newsmen. But she did it—still bound to her MGM contract—and gave the "John O'Hara trollop a rousing portrayal."

Lemmon is one of the screen's best light comedians, but it was his pathos in "The Apartment" that made him the actor to beat. If the Harvard-educated Lemmon wins, he will become the first ac-

Rebel Threat To Capital Fades

Central Congo Signs Arms Pact With Katanga, Kasai

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The central Congo government today signed a military pact with independent Katanga and the Kasai mining state for a united front against the leftist rebels. But a rebel threat to this capital seemed to be evaporating.

As the pact was signed in Katanga President Moise Tshombe's capital of Elisabethville, the United Nations reported that leftist rebels had pulled out of the Kasai provincial capital of Lulua-bourg while their spearhead at the frontier of Leopoldville Province had vanished.

The pact among the three frequently feuding regimes could lead to a political federation capable of challenging the Communist-backed regime of Antoine Gizenga, the dead Patrice Lumumba's political heir, in Stanleyville.

Premier Joseph Ileo, sent by President Joseph Kasavubu to Elisabethville to seek Tshombe's help, signed for the Leopoldville government. President Albert Kalonji signed for his independent mining state of Kasai Province. Tshombe signed for Katanga.

One clause of the agreement said the signatories "are determined to solve their problems themselves and will not accept any outside intervention."

Kasavubu had a private talk with G. Mennen Williams, touring U.S. assistant secretary of state for African affairs. He was said to have told Williams that the Congolese government is not waging a cold war against the United Nations.

Safe In Store Left Intact As Burglars Flee

Hole Is Cut In Roof To Enter Thorofare Market In East End

Burglars hacked a hole in the roof of the Thorofare Market building on Pennsylvania Ave. Monday night or early today, but apparently were frightened away before they could attempt to open the safe.

Police were continuing an investigation of the entry late this morning, but David Jenkins, manager of the big food market, said nothing was discovered missing in a first check.

A crowbar, a big screw driver and a big pair of cable cutting shears were found in the office near the safe, indicating that the intruders intended to attempt to open the safe, but were frightened away before starting the job.

Jenkins said the same tools appeared in the safe.

TWO OF THE THREE MEN who have signed a military agreement against leftist rebels are Albert Kalonji, left, leader of the mining state of South Kasai, and Katanga President Moise Tshombe. Leopoldville Premier Joseph Ileo was the other signatory. (UPI Telephoto)

Williams assured Kasavubu of President Kennedy's continued support for the Leopoldville government against the Stanleyville regime. Kasavubu was said to have asserted his will to cooperate with the United Nations if it

Gaming Case At Cactus Bar Is Dismissed

A charge of operating a gaming table brought against the alleged operator of the Cactus Bar by a city man was dismissed today when the complaining witness failed to appear at a hearing before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Kenneth Ross, 941 Vine St., formerly of Hookstown, failed to press his complaint at a hearing for William Watson, 44, of Chester this morning before the New Cumberland squire.

Ross, claiming he had lost money Friday in a poker game operated by Watson in the Route 30 tavern, obtained a warrant for Watson's arrest Sunday.

The charge of operating a gaming table against Watson was dismissed when Ross failed to appear for the hearing at 10 a. m.

While serving the warrant, deputies cited the licensee of the Cocoa Club, known as the Cactus Bar, on a charge of possession of alcoholic beverages on licensed premises.

Squire Herron this morning fined Robert Reckner, licensee, $100 and costs. Reckner, a resident of Route 30 near Chester, pleaded guilty.

Both Watson and Reckner had posted $200 bonds.

Urges Congress Not To Allow Scheduled Gasoline Levy Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today proposed a tax formula for financing super-highways by placing a greater share of the burden on big trucks. The President, in a 3,500-word special message to Congress, said his pay-as-you-go plan would complete 41,000 miles of express roads by 1972 without resort to a higher federal gasoline tax.

However, he said Congress should not permit a scheduled June 30 reduction in the gas tax from 4 cents a gallon to 3 cents. And he added that if his proposals for heavier levies on trucks are rejected, Congress should be prepared to increase gasoline taxes on all users.

Kennedy's plan would boost taxes and fees on heavy trucks, diesel fuel, tires, tubes and retread rubber. While truckers would bear the brunt of these, Kennedy said even so they would not pay "their fair share of the cost of this program."

The President also made some sharp comments about roadside billboards, which he said "tend to detract from both the beauty and safety of the routes they line."

Kennedy said the states should be given a bigger incentive to regulate billboards. If that doesn't work, he said federal control or billboard taxes might be necessary.

In arguing the merits of super-highways, Kennedy said they will save each year at least 4,000 lives, 42,000 years of travel time and 9 billion stops for red lights and intersections.

Declaring the road program vital to the nation's security, safety and economic growth, Kennedy said "I am wholly opposed to either stretching out or cutting back" the work. He was equally emphatic about paying for the job out of revenues from taxes on highway users without dipping into general funds and unbalancing the budget.

The only time regular Treasury funds should be used, he said, would be in times of recession. He added that he believes anti-slump moves already proposed will be sufficiently effective to make such action unnecessary.

If a later reading of economic signposts indicates otherwise, Kennedy said, Congress might want to use general funds to repair winter road damage in areas of substantial unemployment.

The President said the road program is in real peril because of a threatened shortage of funds. He said that if the job is to be finished on schedule federal revenues must be increased by $900 million a year after June 30. Otherwise, he said, the program will take an extra five years.

Lisbon Driver Injured When Car Rolls Over

2 Others Unhurt In Crash At Same Spot Short Time Later

A Lisbon man was injured in a one-car crash on Route 30 west of Lisbon early today, while two others from Lisbon escaped injury in a crash at the same site a short time later. Two city motorists were unhurt in a sideswiping northwest of here this morning.

Robert Laughlin, 25, of 510 W. Washington St., Lisbon, is in Salem City Hospital with lacerations of the head suffered when his car turned over on Route 30 about five miles east of Minerva at 12:30 a. m.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Laughlin, headed east, lost control on a curve, veered left of center and upset. He was charged with reckless operation.

At 2:13, at the same site, a car driven by Clark Maruca, 39, of 229

Urges Conventional Forces

Rusk Faces Quiz On Plan For Shifting From A-Arms

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk faces congressional questioning today on reports he favors shifting away from a policy of "massive retaliation" and advocates a big buildup in conventional military forces.

The buildup by the United States and its allies is said to be favored by Rusk to meet the danger of brushfire war and lessen the risk of a nuclear conflict. Conventional forces would be used to combat any Communist military aggression that might be staved off without use of nuclear weapons.

"Massive retaliation," as enunciated by the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, would put primary reliance on nuclear weapons as means of combating Communist aggression.

Rusk's views were given in a secret paper to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. Rusk's appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today was scheduled several days ago.

Informants said Rusk favored holding off the use of nuclear weapons until a Communist attack reached a more massive level than would have triggered atomic retaliation under the Eisenhower administration's policy. In defense language, this is known as raising the atomic threshold.

High officials made clear that the U. S. government still plans to draw on its atomic arsenal if necessary against Communist attacks abroad.

A story in Monday's Washington Star described Rusk's position as this:

Reports on various other projects were heard, including Bosses Night held in January, Toys for Tots in December and the fruit cake sale.

Richard Emmerling reported on the findings of a committee formed to investigate the possibility of starting a youth or community center.

previously and adopted by the Board of Directors were ratified by the membership. James Allison, president, presided.

Adkins announced the Cleveland All-State meeting will be held Saturday and Sunday. Hall, nominating committee chairman, urged those interested to file for an office. The election will be held in May.

The use of hypnosis in modern dentistry and medical practice was outlined by Dr. F. D. Irwin, speaker at the meeting. Twenty-eight attended.

Dr. Irwin briefly reviewed the history of hypnosis, explaining how it was utilized in ancient times and also how it was exploited by "quacks."

Dr. Irwin explained that hypnosis is just a "tool" that is used when the person fears dental procedures or cannot be given chemical anesthetic because of physical reasons. Dr. Irwin was introduced by Emmerling, program chairman.

Guests included Alfred Fricano of W. 9th St., Russell Brown of Newell and Jack Woerner of Etruria St. Russell Hall, a director, gave the invocation.

It was announced that Cregar and Robert Milne, Americanism officer, have presented an American flag to Cub Scout Pack 36 of the Longs Run Presbyterian Church. Films of the 1960 World Series were screened by Tad Galloway.

Curb Meters Due On Part Lisbon Street

LISBON — Council Monday night took action on a traffic problem in the vicinity of the new A. & P. store by banning parking for a stretch of the street and ordering curb meters for the opposite side.

Parking will be prohibited on the west side of N. Jefferson St. between E. Lincoln Way and Chestnut St. Purchase of eight meter heads was authorized for the east side of N. Jefferson in the area of the store.

William Hiseox Jr. and Gene Morris of the Lions Club asked Council for permission to hold the club's fall festival on the streets again this year. They suggested the north side of the Public Square and would block off Route 45. Council said the club should contact the owners of businesses and buildings and have them sign a petition and that council will agree to whatever the majority prefer.

They said they would try and have the petition by March 13, council's next meeting date.

The street committee reported it does not favor closing the east-west alley at the rear of the Tony Clalione property at 216 E. Lincoln Way, but council told Clalione that if abutting property owners consent, then council will reconsider the proposal.

Clalione claims his barn is struck by trucks when they try to make the turn at the intersection of the alley.

Council agreed to advise Mayor Dean Crammer of Salem that it favors that new Route 62 be brought south into Columbiana County, running about 2 1/2 miles south of the present route. The Columbiana County Mayors Association also prefers this southerly route. The State Highway Department is considering several locations for Route 62, bypassing Salem, Sebring and Alliance by routing it through Mahoning County.

Mrs. Blanche Neill, Joseph Dornon and Fred Steele, Council members, will meet with the Board of Public Affairs in connection with the proposed annexation of a tract north of the village and east of Route 45. Robert Williams, who plans a residential development, has requested annexation.

County commissioners approved the annexation late last year and the next step is up to Council.

Atty. Richard Kennedy, representing Williams, asked that Council continue the matter until its next meeting so that the owner could be present. He is in Chicago. Bills of $6,530 were ordered paid.

Health Office Gives County Home TB Tests

LISBON—The Columbiana County Health Department gave 68 Mantoux TB tests Monday to residents of the County Home and four to employees, according to Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner.

The staff then went to Knox and West Local schools and gave six Mantoux tests, 13 polio shots and 11 immunizations to students.

Dr. Palmer was assisted by the county health nurse, Mrs. Violet Peterson, of East Palestine and school nurses.

Car Fire Extinguished By Off-Duty Fireman

An alert off-duty fireman extinguished an auto fire Monday afternoon before the department arrived.

Frank Shone was passing on St. Clair Ave. near Burton Alley when he spotted the fire in a car operated by John Moore, 1011 Florence St.

Hurrying to a nearby home, Shone grabbed a garden hose and extinguished the blaze, which was blamed on a carburetor backfire.

Two pumpers and the chief's car raced to the building occupied by the Foremen's Club, 1845 Harvey Ave., at 3:07 p. m. after receiving a telephone report of a fire.

However, firemen said the report turned out to be a false alarm. The building is owned by the Hall China Co.

Township Trustees Receive Road Request

A request for a change in a road contour in Calcutta Acres was submitted by a delegation at a meeting of the St. Clair Township trustees Monday night.

The five men, headed by George Holmes, asked the change to eliminate drainage of surface water onto residential property. The request was taken under study, and any action delayed until after the weather improves.

Trustees approved requests for a sewer opening on Coolidge St. and slag for Carroll Rd. and Duke-Vodrey Rd.

CHICAGO (AP) — Vernon R. Chumbley just wants to be a government man, that's all. FBI agents, who arrested the 67-year-old man in a Chicago hotel last week, said Chumbley has spent most of the last 45 years impersonating federal officers or serving in prison for doing so.

Village Hall At Salineville Again For Sale

SALINEVILLE — A move to sell the Village Hall — the third such effort in recent years — was authorized by Council Monday night.

Council instructed the building committee to again advertise for bids to sell the 3-story brick structure on E. Main St. The building includes apartments, offices and a storeroom from which a grocery recently moved.

Council said the building is no longer required for municipal purposes. Facilities in the fire station building would be utilized if the structure is sold.

Permission to establish a coin-operated automatic washer facility in the village was requested by William Gill of Minerva. The request was referred to the solicitor to check legal and sanitary factors involved. A report is expected at the meeting March 13.

A request for correction of muddy conditions in an alley between Washington and Lincoln Sts., by Robert Skinner of Schoolhouse Hill, was referred to the street committee.

Councilman Gillis Earl reported a number of large stones have rolled into the creek near Hart's Garage, posing a threat of obstruction. Mayor Kenneth Leishman said the situation has been referred to county authorities for action.

Council authorized repairs of street holes following a request from Gaylord Zellers, county supervisor of the Ohio Highway Department, who said such repairs are needed before state crews undertake blacktopping of Routes 39 and 644.

A request for slag on streets in the West End was filed by Councilman Orvel Tolson.

Bids will be sought from area gasoline distributors for fuel for village use. Mayor Leishman said it has been reported the community can save 4 cents a gallon if gasoline is purchased in bulk.

The purchase of a $115 adding machine was authorized after S. R. Davis, clerk, reported a new machine is needed. The appropriation ordinance was passed on first reading.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband has a fine voice. He'd rather sing than eat and that's the problem. If he'd sing less we'd eat better.

Chuck works parttime because he must be free to rehearse at odd hours with visiting choral groups. He also takes singing engagements for luncheon clubs which means a cut-up day.

We've been married 12 years and have three children. If I didn't work full time we'd never make it. Chuck is a wonderful husband and father except for this one fault. I want him to stop the music nonsense so I can relax a little.

He says I agreed to this arrangement before we married, which is right — I did. But now I'm ready to tell him to quit singing the "Road to Mandalay" and take it. What's your advice? — TONE DEAF.

Dear Deaf: Stop beating yourself — eight to the bar. You made a bargain, now stick to it. A wife doesn't tell a wonderful husband and father to take the road to Mandalay because he works only parttime and she must help out. Many talented stars who rake in the loot by the bushel basket struggled for a long time before they hit it big. It could happen to Chuck.

Speaker Of The House

Dear Ann: What can be done about a close friend who is nice in many ways but who has a habit that drives me buggy?

This woman will interrupt everyone and anyone to express her own views. She never waits for the speaker to draw a breath, much less finish a sentence. She just sails right in.

I've seen people try without success to get back to what they were saying before she interrupted. This woman is so skilled at taking over a conversation that it's virtually impossible to wrest the floor from her. Is there an answer? — CUT SHORT.

Dear Cut Short: First — how important is the friendship? It occurs to me that this overpowering, all-knowing type might not be worth the effort it takes to get along with her.

If you want to effect a cure there's only one way. When she cuts in just continue to talk in a louder voice and ignore her. If she's still with it after three or four sentences say: "You have a bad habit of interrupting people. I wish you would be courteous enough to let me finish — then you may have the floor."

A Closed Book

Dear Ann: I'm almost 18 and went steady with a boy for two years. I thought it was love and nobody could tell me different. I went too far with him but I was very lucky. I got off scot-free, except for my conscience.

Now I'm going with another fellow (I'll call him Dick) who treats me with the greatest respect. I feel guilty about my first boy friend but I think if I told Dick all about it he would be very disappointed in me.

I've asked my mother's advice and she says I should not tell Dick about the other fellow because it is none of his business. Furthermore, she says men sometimes throw up the past after a few years.

I promise to do as you say. Please advise me. — LOUISVILLE LOU.

Dear Lou: Your mother gave you good advice. Take it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Jury To Fix Price On Land Acquired In Highway Work

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury of ten women and two men is hearing testimony today to determine the value of land appropriated by the State Highway Department from Mr. and Mrs. James I. Lore of New Waterford R. D. 1.

The case began Monday before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard. When the jury was selected it went immediately to the site, which is for the improvement of Route 46 near the junction of Route 558 in Unity Township.

The state had offered $1,670 for the seven acres and $2,151 for damage to residue, a total of $3,821. In an opening statement, Lore's counsel, Atty. Jack Cohen of East Palestine, said the true value of the land and residue is somewhere between $20,000 and $29,000.

Selected to serve on the jury are

Doris Stratton, Catherine C. Bichsel, Kenneth J. Howells, Ruth R. Grisez and Edgar C. Sheen of Salem; Bernice Freshly of Lisbon; Mildred Hutton of Columbiana; Gertrude Snyder and Wilma Aegerter of Hanoverton; Audrey Harold of Leetonia; Bernice Stoudt of East Rochester, and Mildred Blevins of Minerva R. D. Marion F. Gordon of Salem is alternate.

Toronto Man Enrolled By District Radio Club

Garland Shorter of Toronto was enrolled as a new member of the Triangle Amateur Radio Club at a meeting Monday night at the Smith St. quarters.

About 20 attended. Refreshments were served.

America Is For Americans

Our assistant secretary of state for African affairs has been trying to talk himself out of one of those flaps that give ulcers to professional diplomats. This is what his non-admirers expected from G. Mennen Williams, the man who never will be forgotten in Michigan. Nevertheless, as one of his non-admirers we think this particular flap is a lot of flapdoodle.

We'll take his word for it that he did not say, "Africa is for Africans," in the sense that Africa is for African Negroes. He insists that he added that his definition included white people in Africa who are Africans by birth and adoption.

What happened to him is what has happened to many of us who have tried to say what we meant without defining our terms. "America is for Americans." How many of us have stepped into that trap and been obliged to chew off a front leg to escape?

There are white men and women in Africa who never have lived anywhere else. There are white families there with roots going deep into African history. There are brown men in Africa whose remote ancestors helped to demonstrate the potentialities of the human mind when Chapt. 1 of human history was being written.

All people who consider Africa to be their home are Africans, as truly as all people who consider North America, or any of its national divisions, as their home are Americans.

In the United States alone are all the colors and creeds of the human race. But if they call this their home, if this is where they live and vote and pay taxes and owe their loyalty, they are Americans. Millions are Negroes. Some are descended from the original Indians who lived here. Others are identified to one degree or another with origins in Europe, Asia, Africa and the islands of the sea. But they are Americans—and America is theirs.

This is taken for granted here, and we are sure it is what former Gov. Williams meant when he was quoted as saying in British Kenya that Africa was for Africans. If they live there, they have the power of decision.

It put the British into a state of hysteria, because many of them think they have a God-given right to rule Africans.

They don't, of course. In a showdown, the only Africans with a God-given right to rule Africa are Africans, which is what G. Mennen Williams was trying to explain.

A Talk May Help

There's a lesson to be learned from the tragic slaying of 4-year-old Edith (Googie) Kiecorius in New York City.

East Liverpool district parents shocked by the brutal murder would do well to sit down with their youngsters and caution in the proper way against accepting favors from strangers. Especially should children be warned not to get into automobiles with persons they don't know.

May it never happen, but the danger is ever present that tragedy could strike here. Every now and then reports are heard of girls being accosted, but fortunately any vicious crimes have been avoided.

A talk with your youngsters now could serve as a further preventive step.

Who Sent For The Police?

This is the hour of greatest peril for the United Nations, say its sincerest friends.

The United Nations, a police organization without any policemen, has sent a police force it cannot control into a situation it cannot improve without any sanction from the country, which at the moment is not a country at all but a rolling riot.

All it would take to transform what is left of this police force that cannot be controlled into a group of "trespassers" and "marauders" would be for many people to start screaming these names—and so many people want to scream them that the noise will be deafening if they ever get together.

The United Nations as a police organization without any policemen always has been obliged to think of itself as an organization dedicated to pure persuasion. But pure persuasion is of no effect against forces unwilling to yield to it—and there is no evidence that any Congolese political leader of any stripe or station is willing to yield to U.N. persuasion.

The Belgians now returning to their favorite part of the Congo, where they are the backbone of political and economic stability, have no intention of knuckling under to the United Nations, which has let itself get into the absurd situation of ordering them home because the Soviet Union claims they shouldn't be there.

And if that weren't embarrassment enough for the beleaguered organization, the United Nations is making the impression that it is prepared to commit itself to military violence in the name of preventing civil war, which would amount to fighting both sides in a struggle it couldn't win.

The United Nations has been told by Ambassador Stevens not to expect the United States to come to its rescue, as it did in Korea, where it wound up by fighting a costly war with only nominal help from its allies. "The Yanks aren't coming."

Americans do not have to be told that their government's promises to get tough in the Congo if it is threatened with invasion do not include going to war against African Negroes; that would be unthinkable.

There would be no relish among Britons or Frenchmen for getting mixed up in a race war, either. The French are still trying to pacify Algeria after years of futile fighting. The British are trying to hold onto what is left of their colonial possessions in Africa.

This is a dark hour for the United Nations. The police organization that never had a police force is within a few fateful decisions of trying to rationalize its role as peacemaker in a place where it is regarded as an intruder.

The Once Over

Lots of older lawyers, prosecutors and judges must still have red faces from a recent crack by Justice Douglas in Frank Costello's deportation case. Main issue on appeal was whether Costello had lied in telling citizenship bureau he was a real estate man instead of a bootlegger.

Justice Douglas said, "Bootlegging in itself would not have been a reason for denying citizenship in prohibition period. If so, it would have been an act of hypocrisy unparalleled in American life. Bootlegging came into being because of the demand of the great bulk of people, including lawyers, prosecutors and judges."

The majority decision upheld lower court decision that Costello should be deported for false statement. So with exit from U.S. facing him, Costello can drink heartily of the Douglas "bracer" but may have to take a "Six Star Majority" decision as a "chaser."

It was possible for a man to be both a realtor and bootleggers in the dizzy days of prohibition. There were poets, engineers, artists, philosophers and men of all trades who would offer to help get you a case just off a boat, and there were buyers from the bench, bar and law enforcement agencies, as from all fields.

It seems unlikely, however, that in those days anybody called up Frank and said "Frankie, all I want from you is a good 80 proof bunelaw." But, by a 6-2 vote the high court seemed to conclude that he might have answered calls with "Costello speaking. What do you want, real estate or booze?"

It's hard to dig Justice Douglas's logic, however, when he holds that a man testifying falsely about bootlegging when applying for one of highest gifts of American life (citizenship) would not have been guilty of serious offense, regardless of consumer demand. Mr. Costello gets out of hoosegow this summer. He's been in courts and hoosegows so long he may not mind shoving off for old country provided he gets a very expensive sendoff party and his lawyers pick up the check.

Getting Pretty Noisy

Another Case Against Japanese Labor

By Victor Riesel

MILWAUKEE
Our Japanese friends will Pearl Harbor us again—politically speaking, of course. More and more of their powerful labor and management chiefs are allying themselves with their counterparts in Communist China. We get the polite bows. Chinese the fraternal around the shoulder embrace. Our intelligence service can, for example, tell you of a meeting in the headquarters of Sohyo in Tokyo on the morning of Feb. 8.

Sohyo is the American-bating Japanese national federation of labor. To its offices this day came honored guest Li Chieh-po head of a Peiping Communist labor delegation visiting Japan. In Sohyo offices he was warmly received by Kaoru Ota, national and all-powerful chairman of Sohyo.

There is a tape recording to prove that Mr. Ota expressed "gratitude" to his Communist Chinese brother for the support given the Japanese workers during the "Sohyo's drive against the Japan-U.S. Security Treaty."

Mr. Ota added quite fervently that the "unity between Japanese and Chinese workers should be strengthened" to enable them to fight—guess who? That's right. Us.

COMRADE LI, moved by such fraternal warmth, said he was "deeply impressed by the fact that the Japanese workers had staged as many as 23 united actions against the Japan-U.S. security pact."

Also, Comrade Li added that he expected Japanese workers to continue to oppose military alliance between Tokyo and Washington. Mr. Ota rose to the occasion. He said Li could count on it.

I report this exchange of profundities while I am in Milwaukee, because Wisconsin is one of the areas I've been visiting in search of industries threatened by Japanese imports. I seek a complete list of such industries so I can trace their Nipponese competitors. Then I will be able to pinpoint the Japanese unions in those Oriental plants—and it will be proved that most of them have members living off American dollars, but always plotting against American democracy.

One of the industries, for example, centered in Wisconsin and threatened by Nipponese imports is the production of dry cell batteries.

Nationally, the dry cell battery business is not king size. But some 8,000 men and women do earn $35 million a year turning out this material.

THE SIZE is not indicative of national importance. Without this industry — about a quarter of which is in Wisconsin—we would have no proximity fuse, no walkie-talkie, no communication system of the type used in World War II and in Korea and which would be needed in another military emergency.

Now this little industry is being pushed around by imports from Japanese factories — manned by members of Sohyo Peiping-loving unions.

In 1961, it is expected that the Japanese battery industry will dump some 20 million transistors into the United States. This will be more than half their national production. And it does not include the transistors prepacked in some 3.5 million Japanese radio sets sold in the United States last year.

How can U.S. battery makers — part of our defense as well as civilian economy — exist if its $2-an-hour average wage must compete with 30 cents an hour paid in transistor factories in Japan?

How can our little industry compete with the Japanese who can sell a "216"-type transistor at our port of entry for 15 cents — while our manufacturers must sell it for 70 cents.

WE CAN'T COMPETE. So, little by little, our people lose their jobs.

We become so accustomed to vast figures that we overlook the human equation. They told me of 34 workers who were laid off in tiny Mineral Point, Wis. They were employed by the Burgess Battery Co.

Back home in New York and Washington 34 more jobless are just a minute statistic but 34 more jobless in Mineral Point is a very large and sobering figure to the people of the town—so distant from the Communist workers who really bumped them from their bread and butter.

An injury to one is an injury to all our people. I, for one, would rather have the 34 folk eat regularly in Mineral Point, than save four bits by buying a Japanese gadget made by a Sohyo worker pledged to hate us.

Art Of The Possible

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON
Just as President Kennedy's critics begin ganging up on him—because they think his programs go too far or not far enough — it is suddenly revealed he is practicing the art of the possible.

His very active secretary of labor, Arthur Goldberg, defends him for not being more demanding in his proposals to Congress. Goldberg says Kennedy is asking for as much as he thinks he can get.

At Miami last week the AFL-CIO Executive Council praised the President for giving the country a "new sense of purpose." But it complained his plans for economic recovery fall short of enough.

On the other side the American Medical Association, long-time foe of Kennedy's idea of linking medical care for the aged to Social Security, has asked its physician members to talk their patients into being against it, too.

Kennedy got it from still another direction for his failure so far to ask Congress for a single piece of civil rights legislation.

Clarence Mitchell, Washington director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, attacked Kennedy for this failure and reminded his administration that the Democratic platform in 1960 made awfully big promises in this field, including action by both Congress and the President himself.

Mitchell pointed out Kennedy hasn't yet issued a single executive order on civil rights.

Monday in Miami Goldberg, former attorney for many AFL-CIO unions, told the executive council Kennedy's programs represent his best judgment of what is obtainable from Congress where conservatives of both parties dominate.

Also Monday Rep. Leslie Arends of Illinois, one of the most important Republicans in the House, said his party won't oppose Kennedy for the sake of obstruction but for what's good for the country.

But if Kennedy has a problem in dealing with the Republicans, they have one of their own in dealing with him: How far can they go in opposing him without ruining themselves?

The voters have shown so little confidence in them that in every election since 1954 they have pushed the Republicans in Congress aside and given control of both House and Senate to the Democrats.

In fact, the voters have trusted control of Congress to the Republicans for only four years out of the past 28. Still, Republicans are beginning to make sounds like optimists about the 1962 elections, although not loudly.

So, before they play tiger with Kennedy programs which affect the welfare of millions of people, they have to ask themselves: Where will this leave them in 1962 and, for that matter, in 1964, too?

Arends on a TV program said he thought the vote on most of Kennedy's programs would be extremely close. This may explain why Kennedy hasn't sent any civil rights legislation to Congress.

For his other programs he'll need all the votes he can get, including votes by the Southern Democrats who team up with Republicans. If he offered a civil rights program, they'd fight it for sure and slow up everything else.

In addition a hard drive by Kennedy for civil rights legislation might so anger them they'd fight harder against some of his other requests.

But it's hard to see, in view of the big Democratic pronouncements and promises in the campaign, how he can ignore civil rights to the extent of not only asking Congress for nothing but doing nothing himself.

Therefore, it should be no surprise if later this year he takes action in the civil rights field—not through proposals to Congress—but through his brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy.

Robert Kennedy is head of the Justice Department which is responsible for enforcing civil rights protections.

Was Change At Washington Good Or Bad?

Was the change in administration here a fortunate or unfortunate event in world affairs? It could turn out either way. Time alone can tell — maybe it will be another year before the full effect can be appraised.

Arguments can be made on both sides. In support, however, of the theory that David Lawrence it was wise to change administration, there's an ancient tale which gains modern significance because it was told by Winston Churchill at breakfast with some Cabinet officers in the Eisenhower administration on the occasion of one of his visits to Washington.

It is the story of a native of a Middle East country who was sentenced to die. After several days in prison he confided to some of his fellow prisoners, also condemned to death, that he had a new plan to save himself.

"If the Shah," he said, "will give me a reprieve of only one year, I'll promise to teach his favorite bull to fly."

"But," said the other prisoners, "you will be taking a fatal chance. The rest of us will die a merciful death — one swish of the sword — but if you fail, you will die in torture."

"Oh, no," exclaimed the optimistic prisoner, as he added: "Many things can happen in a year. In the first place, the Shah might die. In the second place, the bull might die. And in the third place, I just might be able to teach that bull to fly."

So it is possible that many things can happen in the period just ahead as the Kennedy administration feels its way in world affairs.

Even the Soviet dictator seems to be willing to wait before deciding what attitude to take toward the Kennedy administration. He has just sent a blistering letter to virtually all the heads of government throughout the world about the Congo and the U.N.'s alleged failures but he carefully omitted the President of the United States from the list.

Certainly it will take several months for the Kennedy administration to become fully informed on all the background of Soviet-American relations and on the many phases of policy that tend to make the Western alliance look a bit shaky today.

What better excuse for delay and caution, therefore, could there be as the new administration utilizes the opportunity to examine all aspects of world policy?

The lapse of time could, in this instance, be constructively helpful. There may be no assurance in such maneuvers that a nuclear war has been prevented but at least it may be indefinitely postponed.

CRITICS on the other side of the argument assume just the opposite position — that time is of the essence. The deterioration in Cuba, in Laos, in the Congo and in the Middle East, as well as the serious trouble France has in Algeria, all add up to a crisis of massive proportions.

The American people, it is contended, broke the third-term precedent in 1940 and even elected a president for a fourth term in 1944 because they didn't want to make a change in the middle of a war.

This time, it is argued that the cold war presented an even riskier situation and that a change in administration has brought to Washington a new set of policymakers at the top who can't possibly learn for another year at least the ins and outs of the problems they are forced to deal with every day.

Can administrations be switched and experienced personnel swept out suddenly and no damage be done?

The Kennedy administration hasn't really made up its mind on foreign policy.

Some principles established in the past will be maintained but Nikita Khrushchev still hopes that the new group in Washington will make deals with him and will not seriously challenge his schemes for world domination. In fact, he is counting on the admission of Red China to the U.N. to give the Soviet-Chinese alliance world.

As for developments in Washington thus far, the "new era" may turn out, after all, to be a return to an old era.

ALREADY old-time secrecy is the rule. The RB47 fliers were released a month ago but the press isn't able as yet to find out where the plane really was when shot down or why the United States hasn't uttered a protest since it knows the facts.

Secrecy in negotiations is helpful at times but congressional committees in the past have been emphasizing "the right to know." Now they are strangely silent on Capitol Hill.

Did America pay a ransom for the release of those fliers? Would there be the same silence if all this had happened under the Eisenhower administration?

As for the roving missions, former Gov. Williams of Michigan has stirred up a controversy by impromptu remarks on his visit to Africa.

Another roving ambassador, Averell Harriman — a man of longer experience — is about to confer with the heads of government in Europe. Maybe this is wise, as the ambassadors of the last administration are gone and the new ones aren't in their posts or trained as yet.

In the White House there are at the President's side several persons who deal with foreign policy — a setup Secretary Dulles successfully avoided. At the State Department Secretary Rusk must be having a hard time keeping up with all that's going on around him. It's all well enough to say Mr. Kennedy is running foreign policy but the President can't administer the detail of any one department and do justice to all departments. There isn't time enough.

Letter To The Editor

On the birth date of George Washington, the Father of our great United States, there appeared an article in the East Liverpool Review, an article about the condition of the pottery industry in the United States with which, in part, I agree wholeheartedly.

Myself and the whole of the employees in the pottery industry know the imports from foreign lands are a great menace to the workers and to management. And we, as labor, have been trying, and are going to continue to try to do something about the situation. How well we will succeed is to be seen.

We have some other industries now in our back yard that are beginning to feel the pinch of foreign competition. I am thinking of steel.

Management would like to have labor think the reason for this is due mostly to a prolonged strike of more than 100 days some time ago. Did management know how long this strike would last? It is my opinion it did. Why? Because when the strike started they leased one whole floor of a large building in New York until a certain date. The date was the one on which the President of the United States invoked the Taft-Hartley Law. This could have been a coincidence, but I don't think so.

Glass is another commodity that is hurt very badly by imports from foreign countries. We have had the support of the glass industry of both labor and management in the past. And I am sure we will have their support in the future in trying to combat these unfair imports of cheap labor products from foreign countries.

Now, let us get this one point straight. I am of the opinion that labor in the pottery industry does not get enough wages. On the other hand, I assume management thinks it is paying us too much, so that goes for a darn good argument. The one in the article I read on Feb. 22 that gets my goat is the reference to and I quote, "Nor can we remember seeing employees standing around waiting for something to happen as is the case in our plants." Unquote. I admit this may not be any of labor's affairs, but the thing I would like to know is this: Two or three years ago, a certain plant had 600 to 700 employees. Now, it has 200 to 300, maybe 400 employees with the same amount of supervisors. What are they waiting for? Is it for some one to send in an order?

I have been employed at the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. in Newell for more than 30 years. The day I was hired, I knew this one thing, and I have kept this in mind every day I work: If the company I work for does not make money, some day I will be out of work. I am sure every potter in the industry feels the same way as I do about this. With this in mind, let us, labor and management, together get busy and do something to try to stop some of this cheap labor products not only pottery, but all items that are taking American jobs, and industry's business away from them.

We are not going back to the horse and buggy days. We are going to progress. When we buy, let us demand "Union Made" and "American Made." If we all do this our troubles are over.

3 Out Of 5 Still Unemployed

Ohio BUC Reports Results Of Survey On Jobless Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Bureau of Unemployment Compensation today reported results of a survey of Ohioans who exhausted their unemployment benefits during the first 11 months of 1960. The survey showed:

Three out of 5 or 61 per cent of the persons who returned the survey's questionnaires were still unemployed.

One out of 5 was re-employed on a full time basis; 8 per cent employed part time, 1 out of 10 no longer interested in employment or retired.

The bureau's survey began in January with mailing of the questionnaires to 5,551 persons, representing about 10 per cent of the state-wide total whose unemployment benefits had run out last year. (60,500 claimants exhausted their benefits in the first 11 months of 1960). By Feb. 8, responses had been received for 9 out of 10 of those surveyed.

Donald B. Leach, bureau administrator, said that through the study it was learned that less than half of those who exhausted their benefits early in 1960 were still unemployed, while the proportion of joblessness increased to 79 per cent among those who drew their final compensation checks last November.

He said an analysis of the survey showed the occupational background of those whose benefits had terminated last year. Three-fifths of all surveyed were classified in the two lower skill levels:

1 of 3 was unskilled, 28 per cent semi-skilled, 15 per cent skilled, 10 per cent were classified as service help, 12 per cent in clerical and sales categories, and the remainder included professional or managerial workers. Fewer than 1 out of 6 were in the so-called "white collar" category.

As for the current employment status of those with terminated benefits, the lowest level of skills showed the highest proportions still without work. Two out of every 3 unskilled workers were still seeking full time jobs, and the proportion for the semi-skilled reached 63 per cent. Full time re-employment percentages were highest for professional, managerial and skilled workers.

At the time of the survey, about two-thirds of those separated from construction and 63 per cent from manufacturing were still unemployed. In the manufacture of primary metals, including steel, 78 per cent were jobless. Highest re-employment proportion was in the manufacture of transportation equipment, including autos and parts. Thirty-six per cent separated from this industry were re-employed on a full time basis.

Nearly half of those who exhausted their benefits were men with no other family member fully employed. Nearly 3 out of 4 reported no outside aid since they exhausted their benefits, and claimants with dependents showed higher reemployment rates than those without dependents.

To Confer On Bridge

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Gov. Matthew E. Welsh says the highway directors of Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio will confer in March to decide if it is feasible to build another Ohio River bridge at Lawrenceburg, Ind., as part of the interstate highway system. Welsh issued the statement after conferring here Monday with Kentucky Gov. Bert Combs, officials of highway departments from the three states and members of the Indiana Toll Bridge Commission.

in his sworn application form. The commission indicated it received tips on Beatty's Apples Corners address after a list of the successful exam applicants was published Feb. 21.

Meanwhile, the commission set a hearing Thursday at 3 p. m. in the Council Chamber at City Hall on an appeal filed by Beatty's son, Charles E. Beatty of N. Surry Rd., Fisher Park, who was discharged Feb. 16 from an operator's job at the sewage plant.

Copenhaver ordered Beatty's removal on grounds of "incompetence and neglect of duty," charging he failed to take certain readings and perform other tasks while on duty the night of Feb. 1-2.

In a letter appealing from the director's action, Beatty told the commission he failed to obtain one temperature reading on the night in question, but denied all the other charges. Beatty said in his letter he missed taking a reading about 11:30 p. m. because he was ill with a severe chest cold and his car broke down, which forced him to walk from his home to the plant. He said he arrived at the plant exhausted and ill.

Charles Beatty has been employed at the plant about three years. In its hearing, the commission will affirm or reverse the director's action.

The commission received a written notice from the Board of Public Utilities that it has appointed Rodney Stull of Bank St. as an assistant maintenance man in the water department, acting on a list of four eligibles furnished by the commission. As the water board had requested a list of four eligibles to fill posts, the commission voted to notify the board it must fill the second vacancy from the same list.

A $1,500 budget was approved for presentation to Council for 1961. Attending were Donal Burcham, Clarence E. Reagle and Atty. Ben H. Berman, members, and P. K. Calhoun, clerk.

Traffic

S. Beaver St., Lisbon, slowed when Laughlin's car was being towed away. Maruca's car was struck from behind by one operated by Robert Herrold, 51, of 436 W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, the patrol said.

Both cars received considerable damage, officers said. Herrold was cited for failure to halt in the assured clear distance.

Only minor damage was reported to a pickup truck and two cars in an accident at 6:40 a. m. today at the intersection of Routes 30 and 7 near the Super 30 Drive-In Theater.

Officers said cars driven by Louise VanFossen, 43, of 809 St. Clair Ave. and Valmond Rice, 25, of 1088 Anderson Blvd., had turned from Route 30 onto Route 7, heading north.

A pickup truck, driven by Phillip Naples, 51, of Lowellville R. D. 1, headed south on Route 7 attempted to halt for a stop sign at the intersection, but struck a patch of ice and skidded to the left, sideswiping the two passing autos of officers said.

Officers were investigating a report of a milk truck striking a utility pole on County Rd. 428 at 7 a. m. today, but no details had been filed with the Lisbon barracks.

Armstead Pritchard, 42, of Enon Valley was charged with driving while intoxicated following a mishap on Route 170 at 9 p. m. Monday.

The patrol said Pritchard, heading north, lost control on a curve about 2½ miles south of Negley, and crashed through a guardrail. He escaped injury, but there was considerable damage to his 1960 auto, officers reported.

Judge Will Study
Execution Delay

BEAVER — Federal Judge Rabe F. Marsh decided Monday at Pittsburgh to study petitions for a habeas corpus hearing for convicted slayer Arthur Schuck of Baden.

Judge Marsh heard arguments for the habeas corpus from Atty. John V. Snee, who said Schuck's constitutional rights were violated during the trial.

Joseph Walko, first assistant district attorney of Beaver County, gave arguments against granting the petition. Both attorneys will file briefs.

Schuck was scheduled to be executed Jan. 27 for a "mistaken identity" slaying but won a stay of execution from Judge Marsh. The State Pardons Board had turned down Schuck's plea.

Should the petition for the hearing be denied, a new execution date could then be set.

Plant Mishap
Kills Engineer

WEIRTON — One man was killed and another injured seriously in an electrical accident Monday afternoon at 4:15 at the construction site of the Air Products Inc., in north Weirton.

Marvin Snyder, 44, died at 9:25 p. m. yesterday in Weirton General Hospital. He suffered burns over 90 per cent of his body.

Ralph LeVan is listed in "critical" condition today in the hospital with severe burns over 70 per cent of his body.

The two electrical engineers, both from Allentown, Pa., were working on 4,000-volt switch gear when the mishap occurred.

An official of the Air Products plant, which will produce oxygen for Weirton Steel Co., when the facility is completed, said the exact cause of the electrical accident "is not known."

Workmen at the plant, which has been under construction for two years, fled in all directions. However, only the two engineers were burned.

arently were used to cut holes through the roof of the one-story building and the metal ceiling below, allowing the burglars to drop onto a pile of stock below and then onto the floor. Initial reports said the holes are only about 10 inches square, large enough only to admit a person of very small frame.

The intruders apparently left via the hole in the roof, possibly fearing they would set off a burglar alarm if they forced open a door.

Patrolman E. R. Furgason started the investigation. He advised Chief A. J. Radeschi by telephone that the safe was "not molested." Furgason was joined later by Capt. Robert H. Pyle and Patrolman Charles E. (Bill) Tice. The burglary was discovered when the store opened this morning.

The store's safe was opened with a cutting torch on at least one occasion about six years ago. At that time, the intruders gained entrance by hacking a hole through a concrete block rear wall.

Judge Orders Detention For Boys In Theft

Two East Liverpool area boys were given detention and five others were placed on probation when arraigned Monday before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon in connection with a series of separate burglaries, thefts and coin-machine riflings.

The judge gave 30 days' detention to a 17-year-old, one of a group of five who confessed to rifling vending machines in three East Liverpool laundries Feb. 21 and Feb. 22. All five were ordered to pay $60 restitution for damage and property loss, observe an 8 p. m. curfew, discontinue associating with each other, go to church each Sunday and report each week to Probation Officer Chris Pusey.

In addition to the boy given detention, another of the defendants is 17, two are 16 and one is 15.

The judge ordered two weeks' detention in the county jail for a 15-year-old East End boy who admitted theft of $107 Feb. 21 from the Ross Amoco Station on Pennsylvania Ave. Located at East Junior High School shortly after the theft, the boy led authorities to the hiding place of the money in a culvert near Erie St.

The court said the 15-year-old has been examined at the Youngstown Diagnostic Center and has another appointment in two weeks. Judge Tobin requested a report from the center before deciding finally on disposition of the boy's case.

Little Boy Who Liked Animals Is Drowning Victim

PIQUA, Ohio (AP)—Little Perry Blue was fond of animals.

So when his grandmother left the house for a few minutes Monday to make a phone call, Perry wandered off. He was searching, firemen believe, for a field of sheep nearby where the animals were grazing.

This Little Boy Blue, not quite three years old, didn't get to realize his quest.

Somewhere along the way, he fell into the Great Miami River and drowned.

Some 50 searchers looked for him for more than four hours before one of them found his body Monday night in weed-covered water—just three feet from shore.

Perry was one of four children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blue who had left him at the Piqua home of his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Slade, while they worked.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Young Mothers Gets Back Into Shape

Shared experiences form the backbone of this column. Young mothers often gain far too much weight with their first pregnancy.

When the excess pounds fail to depart after the baby arrives, the new mother feels disheartened and unable to cope with all her problems.

Then along comes a letter by Ida Jean Kain from someone who has licked the pounds and is now slim and trim. Her words carry conviction.

"With my first baby I gained a lot! At the start of my pregnancy I weighed 125 pounds. When I went to the hospital to have the baby, I weighed 169 pounds!

"Well, after having the baby I came home from the hospital weighed 150 depressing pounds.

"IT HAS TAKEN me a year to get 'back to normal.' I want to share my experience with other young mothers. At 150 pounds I was so self-conscious about my weight! My morale was low and I felt nervous. I determined to take action and take exercise.

"I now weigh 120 pounds. The other day I went to my doctor for my yearly check-up. He told me my muscles are in perfect tone due to exercise. My spirits are lifted and I feel the best I've ever felt in my life.

"This all sounds blithe and easy, but tell your readers there were moments when I felt like giving up. But I didn't! I kept on, and now the look in my husband's eye is all I need to make me happy

I trimmed calories and stayed with the toning exercises.

"I still exercise daily and my waist is 22 inches. . . almost like a teen-ager. Thank you for all your encouragement."

Young mothers, grab hold of a key sentence in her letter. . . "My spirits are lifted and I feel the best I've ever felt in my life." The most important time in your life or exercise is after the baby arrives. With exercise to restore tone to the overly-stretched abdominal muscles, your figure will not spread.

This sample exercise encourages the organs to resume their normal high position.

Position: Lie on back, knees bent, soles of feet flat on floor, arms down at sides. Aim to keep spine flat on floor as you pull firmly up-and-in with abdomen.

Movement: Slowly lift one vertebra at a time off the floor. The aim is to try to curl the tip of the spine upwards, making the end of the spine lift itself up. Then lower back to floor one vertebra after another.

REPEAT ROUTINE four times, rest, repeat 4 times. At the end of the first week of exercising, raise arms and stretch back on floor beyond head as hips are raised.

Give a strong in-pull with the abdominal muscles when hips are in air. Slowly lower to floor. Follow your own doctor's advice regarding exercise.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "After The Baby Arrives" and "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Trustees Plan Acquisition Of New Building

HAMMONDSVILLE—The Board of Trustees of Saline Township is in the process of purchasing a cement block building at the summit of the New Somerset Hill to house road maintenance equipment.

Frank Scarabino of Irondale, president, said the board will meet Wednesday at 1 p. m. in the Township House to complete plans for making a down payment on the structure.

The board holds an option on the 40-x-60-foot cement block building and three acres of land offered for sale by Hugh Saltzman for $3,500.

The board plans to make a $2,000 down payment and hopes to pay the balance by late spring. The option expires April 10.

The building, equipped with electricity and sewer facilities, would replace the present maintenance shed along Tarburner Rd.

The new structure would house a grader, a truck, tractor high-lift, tractor mowing machine, snowplows, ash spreader and other equipment.

The board received two bids Saturday for a new motor grader, but tabled the offers from Galion and Huber-Warco Co. until trustees see the equipment in operation either Friday or Saturday. The board's present Galion grader will be offered as a trade-in.

Healey Has A Winner . . .

Thomas "Tink" Healey produced winning clubs at Wellsville, but his records there can't compare with the won-loss marks he has compiled since pulling stakes for Stark County three years ago.

Healey leads his Northwest squad into the Canton Class "A" Sectional as the top seeded team among the eight clubs entered.

Northwest won the Stark County title Saturday night by nipping East Canton, 48-45, to earn a spot in the Sectional event.

All-State Time Again . . .

THE DEADLINE for all-state basketball ballots is Wednesday. Fritz Howell, Associated Press Sports Editor for Ohio, will compile the votes from sportswriters, sportscasters and coaches.

The teams should be released in about two weeks. Here are some of the cagers from this district who we feel may receive some recognition.

East Liverpool has two, Kenny Cunningham and Kenny Miller rate as two of the finest outside men to be found anywhere in Ohio.

Cunningham scored 439 points for the season and Miller fired in over 300, but was the team's leading rebounder. And that is saying something since he stands only 6 feet.

At Wellsville, Bob Kiggins would rate some honors. He has eclipsed the 1,000-point mark in four years of competition and has been his team's leading scorer the past two seasons.

Don Davidson of Salem and Jim Hartshorn of East Palestine must be considered. Both boys did outstanding jobs for their respective teams this season. East Palestine also had Jim McCloskey, who ran

United, Lisbon Open Tourney Bids Tonight

Two of four Columbiana County teams competing in the Canton Class "A" Sectional Tournament will see action tonight at Canton's Memorial Auditorium.

United, surprise winner over Fairfield - Waterford in the Columbiana County tourney last Friday night, takes the floor tonight at 7 against Windham. United shows an 8-12 record, while Windham is 12-6.

The second game at 8:30 pits Lisbon against Akron St. Mary. Coach Gary Pike's Blue Devils have but one victory in 18 starts, while the Akron five carries a 3-14 mark into tournament play.

Three games are set Friday night, beginning at 7. Mogadore (15-5) will meet the winner of the United - Windham game. Tink Healey's top-seeded Northwest team, with an 18-2 mark, meets the St. Mary's-Lisbon winner at 8:30, while Coach Len Batcha's Leetonia five takes the floor at 10 against county rival Columbiana. Years of frustration ended for Wellsville High's Tigers Monday night as they swept aside Steubenville Big Red, 71-62, to score an impressive victory in the opening round of the Sectional Class AA tournament at Memorial Auditorium.

Coach Jack McDevitt's Tigers, getting another late season lift from junior guard Roger Ours, advanced to the semi-finals by eliminating Big Red in a tournament battle for the first time in history.

A crowd of nearly 1,000 saw the fired-up Tigers bump Steubenville from the competition with a rousing second half that was highlighted by Wellsville's foul shooting accuracy.

In a nightcap, Toronto High had little trouble in disposing of Wintersville, 85-63, to gain a semi-final berth against Wellsville Wednesday night.

That was the case of Beaver Local. You can't put your finger on any one boy, but as a team they compiled one of the district's top records.

In the Class "A" ranks, the area produced three strong candidates. Don "Wilt" Spire, the pride of Irondale, will be battling for a berth on one of the all-state teams. The 6-foot-6 center is one reason why the Irons have gone as far as they have.

His teammate Bob Mills also has a chance for some honors. However both Spire and Mills are only juniors.

Out of United, Jerry Schaffer has been the big gun for the Eagles and deserves some recognition.

OUR VOTE for Class "A" coach of the year goes to Harry Diehl, who in his freshman season led Stanton Local to an undefeated campaign, the first in the school's history.

P. Baldwin, Ours Shine; Toronto Next

The tournament settles down to a one-night affair tonight with Steubenville Central Catholic opposing Jefferson Union at 8. Central rules a favorite to move into a lower-bracket semi-final spot.

Wellsville ended Steubenville's two-year reign on the Sectional throne with a performance that definitely must be labeled as the finest of the season for the Tigers.

Twice-runner-up to the Big Red in past seasons, the Tigers this year solved with very little trouble Steubenville's tenacious full-court press that had made it so tough a foe in the past.

The action was rough all the way and found three Big Red performers and Wellsville's Rod Ferguson with accuracy from far outside to fill the role of a pacesetter for Wellsville. It was his flawless shooting that helped the Tigers maintain command and build up their longest lead of the game, 60-50, early in the final quarter.

Ours delivered 19, but equally as effective in Wellsville's offensive attack was senior Phil Baldwin, 6-2 forward, who pumped in 20 points and was a leader on the floor the entire game.

Senior Bob Kiggins, 6-4 forward, also flashed a fine floor game and accumulated 16 points to boost his season total to 361 and a four-year total of 1,044. The big inside threat is only 111 points off the all-time school record set last season by Dan Baldwin, who had 1,155.

Senior guard Rod Ferguson, 6-3, and sophomore star Steve Baldwin also shared in the Tigers' successful tourney start with standout defensive and rebounding play.

Ferguson fouled out with 1:17 left in the game but before leaving had made his presence felt in scoring six points and spearing 11 rebounds. The younger Baldwin also scored six points and pulled off nine of Wellsville's 35 rebounds.

Only other performer to see action for Wellsville was Junior Jones, who scored four points in spelling Ferguson late in the game.

Ten players saw action for Steubenville and the big scorer proved to be Cornell Jones, 6-1 senior, who took individual honors for the game with 23 points. Levi Davis, 6-3 junior, scored 12 and Bill Williams got 10 in a substitute's role.

The Tigers moved through Big Red's full-court press like it wasn't there and the squad failed to misce one time in moving the ball.

Wellsville's 21 of 47 attempts for a nifty 44 per cent shooting average while Steubenville had a 37 per cent mark (23 of 59).

Steubenville, nearly always around for the tournament finals in past years, bowed out with a losing season under first-year Coach Owens, losing 10 and winning 9 through the year.

The Tigers had a deficit of two in total field goals, 23 to 21, but cashed in at the foul line for 29 points in 40 attempts. Big Red made 16 of 36 free throws.

Wellsville moves against Toronto in a winning season assured, third in a row for Coach McDevitt. Both the Tigers and Toronto are 11-7 for the season.

TIGERS CLAW BIG RED. Scrambling for a rebound are Steubenville's Levi Davis (40), 6-3 junior and Wellsville's Rod Ferguson as the Tigers gained an opening round victory in the Sectional Class AA tournament Monday night. Star sophomore Steve Baldwin (11) of Wellsville is stationed under the net.

GOAL BY WILLIAMS. Steubenville's Tom Williams (12) appears to have "lost his head" while driving for a layup as Wellsville tumbled Big Red in the Sectional Class AA tourney Monday night, 71-62.

Toronto Ousts Wintersville From Tourney

Toronto, surprised by the fast scoring pace of Wintersville's Lynn Marshall, didn't obtain a comfortable lead until the second half in picking up an 85-63 victory to advance into Wednesday's semi-final match with Wellsville.

Marshall rattled the hoops for 20 points in the first 10 minutes, but in the meantime picked up three personal fouls and then was tagged with his fourth early in the third quarter and had to be taken out. He wound up with 24 points.

Toronto owned a 44-35 lead at halftime and was in front, 66-54, at the end of three periods. Coach Paul Kalivoda's team shot 48 per cent.

Tom Wilson and freshman stand-out Tom Coulter were the big guns for the Red Knights. Wilson fired in 23 points while Coulter, hitting on his favorite one hand push shots, tallied 19.

The loss was Wintersville's 35th straight over two seasons.

Nonpareil Selects 2 For Venditti Fete

Donald L. Burbick of Garner Ave., operator of a city sporting goods store, and B. E. (Ben) Warner head the speaker's list for an "Appreciation Night" banquet Saturday honoring Lou Venditti.

Ed Hester, chairman of the event which will heap honor on one of East Liverpool's finest football coaches, said Burbick will serve as master of ceremonies while Warner will be principal speaker for the brief program.

The banquet will begin at 5 p. m. in the Travelers Hotel. A few tickets are available to the public and may be purchased from either J. Allen (Red) Montgomery of Harry Couch.

The event is a project of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club. Venditti will leave soon to become head football coach at Canton Lincoln High School after five years at the Potter helm.

Club members were given first choice of tickets and the supply of 100 is nearly depleted. Sports fans and friends of Venditti wishing to attend are asked to purchase the remaining tickets as soon as possible.

Many of the club members will attend the final round of the Sectional Class AA basketball championship at Memorial Auditorium following the banquet for Venditti.

Billed Against Campbell; Hartshorn Nets 19 Points

STRUTHERS - East Palestine, paced by its All-Ohio candidate Jim Hartshorn, was only one step away from gaining a berth in the District tournament after bombing Hubbard, 57-45, here Monday night, in sectional play.

East Palestine will now battle Campbell Memorial Friday night at 7:30 for the upper bracket championship. Two teams will advance to the District tournament at Youngstown's South Fieldhouse next week.

Coach Chick McBride's Tri-County champions led all the way last night grabbing a 12-7 lead at the first quarter post then upping the count to 34-19 at halftime.

Hartshorn, East Palestine's bread and butter player all season, dropped in 19 points to pace the Bulldogs.

Bernardi Has 5-Stroke Lead In PGA Club Play

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)-A five-stroke lead had Sam Bernardi, 54, sitting pretty today for the final 18 holes of the PGA Club championship.

Bernardi, resident pro at Winnetka, Ill., used only 30 putts in putting together a 5-under-par 67 third round with an eagle, 5 birdies, 10 pars and 2 bogeys.

His 54-hole total at the end of Monday's play was 204. The second-day leader by a stroke, Ron Montross, 29, Venice, Fla., shot a 73 that put him in runnerup spot with 209.

Tony Lyons, 44, Jamestown, N.Y., placed third with a 69 that made his card read 210 strokes for 54 holes.

Kansas Five, Marquette Join NCAA

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Kansas State's Wildcats and the young Warriors of Marquette have joined the lineup for the NCAA basketball championships, bringing to eight the number of schools set for the 24-team national tournament next month.

Kansas State clinched the Big Eight Conference's assignment in the tournament, whipping Nebraska 77-67 Monday night—an hour

Wellsville, Toronto Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the Wellsville-Toronto Sectional AA tourney game Wednesday at Memorial Auditorium are on sale today at Culp's, Bloor's, McMorrows and News and Gifts stores in Wellsville. Don Lowe, faculty manager announced.

or so before Marquette announced acceptance of a bid to play as an at-large team in the NCAA's Midwest regional.

Texas Tech, still leading the Southwest Conference, failed in its bid to join the NCAA lineup Monday night—losing 95-91 in overtime to Rice at Houston. Tech at 10-3, has clinched at least a tie for the SWC title but Arkansas and Texas A&M both are 9-4 and could share the title and force a playoff or coin flip unless Tech beats defending champion Texas in its last loop game on Thursday.

Kentucky, on an eight-game winning streak in a desperate bid for an NCAA berth; Iowa, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, Xavier of Ohio, DePaul and New Mexico State won other key games on Monday night's college program.

Kentucky, with Ned Jennings scoring 23 points and Billy Ray Lickert 21, crushed Auburn 77-51 for a 9-4 Southeastern Conference victory with one game left. Vanderbilt matched Kentucky at 9-4 with one to go, beating Georgia 87-76 and their duel for the runner up spot took some of the spotlight from Mississippi State, which clinched the Southeastern Conference title with an 11-2 record after clipping Tulane 62-57.

Mississippi State, now 19-4 overall, will not play in the NCAA tourney because of the unwritten state law against competition with Negroes. As a result, the next eligible team in line—Vanderbilt or Kentucky—will draw the tournament assignment.

Both Arkansas and Texas A&M kept alive in the SWC race—the Porkers beating Southern Methodist 88-82 in overtime, and the Aggies routing Baylor 90-69.

Iowa, sixth ranked nationally, overcame a 35-point performance by Purdue ace Terry Dischinger and beat the Boilermakers, 73-62. The Hawks now are 9-2 and could share the Big Ten title with national leader Ohio State should the so-far unbeatable Bucks lose their last two games while Iowa won its last three. Don Nelson scored 26 points and sophomore Matt Szykowski 20 for Iowa, which pushed its over-all record to 17-4.

Elsewhere in the Big Ten, Tom McGrann scored 21 points, Bob Griggs 20 and Dick Erickson 19 as Minnesota spilled Illinois 85-76; Northwestern beat Indiana 60-59 in overtime on Ralph Wells' basket with six seconds left; and Tom Hughbanks' 17 points led Wisconsin to a 76-68 triumph over Michigan.

Ced Price's 19 points were tops for Kansas State, leading the Big Eight with a 10-2 mark to 8-3 for NCAA-ineligible Kansas. Oklahoma State downed Iowa State 58-55 and Colorado beat Missouri 70-67 in other Big Eight games.

DePaul, in the National Invitation Tournament field along with Memphis State, Providence, Detroit, Army, Miami of Florida, Dayton, Temple and Niagara, went on a 20-0 burst in the second half and whipped Youngstown 78-55 for a 16-7 record. Xavier of Ohio (16-7) beat Miami of Ohio, 86-81 in overtime, and Chicago Loyola (14-6) routed Washington of St. Louis 105-77 with Gerry Harkness scoring 33 points.

New Mexico State, winning the first of three it must sweep to tie Arizona State U. for the Border Conference championship, thumped Hardin-Simmons 78-59; and Western Kentucky held its slim chance at a tie in the Ohio Valley loop, beating Middle Tennessee 84-73. Florida dropped back to fourth in the SEC, beaten 52-50 by Georgia Tech as All-America candidate Roger Kaiser scored 15 points.

Geoffrion Widens NHL Point Lead

MONTREAL (AP) — Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, of the Montreal Canadiens, has widened his lead in the National Hockey League scoring race to seven points and appears to be a good bet to win the crown.

Geoffrion now has 40 goals and 42 assists, after adding two goals and two assists last week. His closest rivals are Frank Mahovlich of the Toronto Maple Leafs and Jean Beliveau, his line-mate with the Canadiens.

Beliveau also scored two goals and two assists last week to move up into a tie with Mahovlich, who was held to two assists, according to official league statistics.

MAYOR BERT H. Goodballet was approached from both sides Monday and didn't know whether to purchase a ticket from Kenny Cunningham (left) or Kenny Miller, the two top scorers on East Liverpool High School's basketball squad. The Mayor settled the argument by purchasing two tickets for the City League All-Stars—Canton Collegians game March 8 at Memorial Auditorium for the benefit of the Little Potters League.

35 Holdouts Reported

Twins Top Majors With 8 Players Still Not Signed

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Figure-weary general managers continued to be plagued by the seasonal contract signing headache today as major league baseball's official midnight holdout deadline approached with a long list of players still haggling over terms.

The transplanted Minnesota Twins hold a secure lock on first place with eight dissatisfied members, including such key personnel as long-distance hitters Jim Lemon and Harmon Killebrew and pitchers Jack Kralick and Camilo Pascual.

In all 35 players remain to be signed—11 in the National League and 24 in the expanded American, although some clubs already have classed their non-reporting operatives holdouts after instituting early arrival dates this year.

The Twins, who have moved their franchise from Washington, admitted that Lemon, a .269 hitter with 38 home runs and 100 RBI last season, and Kralick were proving difficult to sign, but said they didn't expect too much trouble with Killebrew and Pascual. Other former Senators reluctant to ink contracts are outfielders Pete Whisenand and Lennie Green and infielders Reno Bertoia and Jose Valdivielso. Second baseman Billy Gardner agreed to terms Monday.

The Milwaukee Braves signed pitcher Lew Burdette and infielder Billy Martin, reducing to five those unsigned and only outfielder Wes Covington apparently ready for a long holdout siege.

First baseman Joe Adcock, utility infielder Felix Mantilla and catchers Joe Torre and Merritt Raney also have not signed contracts.

The Chicago White Sox officially classed shortstop Luis Aparicio, third baseman Billy Goodman, infielder Tony Roig and pitchers Bob Shaw and Turk

Lown as holdouts Monday when they formally opened training.

Among the clubs with lesser headaches, such top players as Detroit outfielder Charley Maxwell, Kansas City pitcher Ray Herbert, New York infielder-outfielder Hector Lopez and Cleveland pitcher Barry Latman have not come around.

Baltimore has four unsigned with shortstop Ron Hansen and pitcher Steven Barber in the army and not due in camp for a month. Philadelphia has a half dozen to go—infielder Ted Lepagie signed Monday—but only the language barrier with the six Latin Americans has slowed progress, according to the club.

San Francisco closed its ranks when pitcher Juan Marichal came to terms and the Giants joined Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Washington, Boston, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago Cubs as teams with completed ledgers.

Kirkland May Be Power Hitter Cleveland Needs

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Cleveland needs a power hitter, and outfielder Willie Kirkland hopes he's it.

One thing Kirkland is sure of as he begins his first season with the Indians—if he never again sees San Francisco's Candlestick Park, it will be too soon.

He figures the park cheated him of at least 10 home runs in 1960 when he was with the Giants. That's why he is so glad to be with Cleveland.

Kirkland came to the Tribe along with pitcher Johnny Antonelli in the deal that sent outfielder Harvey Kuenn to San Francisco. It was one of the last deals Frank Lane made for the Indians.

He's been billed as the power hitter Manager Jimmie Dykes so sorely needs. In three major league seasons he's hit 57 homers. "All I can do is try," the husky 27-year-old outfielder declared.

"I know one thing for sure—at least I'll have a chance to hit some home runs now.

"The Giants expected us three Willies (Mays, McCovey and Kirkland) to do great things last season. But we didn't have a chance. It's impossible to do anything in a ball park where the walls are out of sight.

"I figure I should have hit 30 or 35 home runs last season. I hit only 21."

This season Willie will be playing half his games in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium where it's 390 feet to both left and right center and 410 to straightaway center field. There is no continual wind. Will this help?

"It certainly should help," Kirkland said. "But all I can do is swing the bat and take my chances.

"When I compare my good seasons in the minors with what I've done so far in the majors, it almost makes me sick."

"I used to be able to hit good, but my fielding was poor.

Reds' Freese Seen Erratic By Al Lopez

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have had their share of hot corner players who could hit but were butchers at fielding. They hope Gene Freese is a refreshing change.

The 185-pound third baseman, traded by Chicago's White Sox, said Monday he was glad the Sox traded him out of the league because he had a sentimental feeling about playing against them.

He said, "But I'm sure that I'll be happy at Crosley Field. Always did hit well there. Never will forget the grand slammer I hit there one day as a pinch-hitter for the Phillies."

Gene, who batted .273 and knocked in 79 runs for Chicago last season, added emphasis to the remark, driving several balls over the left field wall in batting practice Monday at Lopez Field.

But Al Lopez, White Sox manager for whom the field is named, previously sounded a discordant note. He said of Freese:

"He has as much potential as any player in the game but he's erratic, especially with his throwing."

And Bill Veck, White Sox president, cracked, "With that scatterbrained guy gone we'll be able to sell the season boxes back of first base again."

But to those plagues, Gene just grinned and said, "Veck is quite a guy with a wisecrack. He's also a great guy to play ball for."

Bill DeWitt, the Reds' new general manager, said he traded shortstop Roy McMillan, one of the Reds' best known and most capable operatives, as part of the Freese deal because Gene was needed.

DeWitt said Manager Fred Hutchinson figures "he'll give us the extra power needed to move up the ladder in the pennant race."

And Wally Post, veteran outfielder who returned to Cincinnati from Philadelphia last season, has favorable words for the third sacker.

"Gene is a good ballplayer," he said. "He has real good power, is okay in the field and can run well. Wait till you see him run; he'll really surprise you with his speed."

Wilt Nears Own NBA Point Record For Single Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain is expected to break his single season National Basketball Association scoring record early in tonight's game against Los Angeles when his Warriors play host to the Lakers in Philadelphia.

Chamberlain moved to within six points Monday night when Philly beat the Lakers 113-88 in Los Angeles and he scored 35 points. An ice-cold first half during which he scored only three points kept him from breaking the mark of 2,707 he set last year as a rookie.

Counting Monday night's game, Chamberlain has scored 2,702, and still has five more regular season games left after tonight.

Wilt has a 38.0 average, well ahead of the Lakers' Elgin Baylor who has scored 2,305.

Cincinnati rookie Oscar Robertson and Bob Pettit of St. Louis, both of whom face each other tonight in New York, are battling for the third spot. The Big O has scored 1,993 points and Pettit, 1,958.

In Final AP Poll

Elder's 17-0 Mark Earns School State Cage Crown

By FRITZ HOWELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Cincinnati Elder, boasting its first undefeated season, was proclaimed Ohio's No. 1 Class AA high school basketball team today in the season's final Associated Press poll.

The pace-setting Panthers can add another "first" to their unbeaten season if they go on to take the Class AA state championship—a feat never accomplished by a Cincinnati team.

Cleveland East Tech, state champ in 1958 and 1959, finished second in the final poll, jumping all the way from seventh in last week's ratings by handling Cleveland West Tech its first setback in a tight 65-64 scrap.

Dayton Roosevelt, second last week, slipped to third—but the defending champions remained in contention. West Tech slipped from third to fourth following its lone loss.

All members of the Top Ten, except Elder, wound up in a new spot this time, but there was only one change in personnel. Sandusky dropped from the tenth position, and unbeaten Cleveland St. Joseph moved in.

A total of 39 sports editors made the final ratings, and now that the scribes have completed their guessing the teams are on their own.

The records go out the window as the survivors head into district tournament "lose and out" play this week on the long trail to the state championship meet March 24-25 at St. John Arena. The chances are that several members of the Top Ten, in each division will not get through this week's play unscathed.

From here and there:

A dozen of the 39 poll voters got into the act of guessing which four teams in each division would make it to the state tourney. Here are the teams they mentioned, with the votes for each:

CLASS AA — Cincinnati Elder and Toledo Macomber 12, Cleveland East Tech 10, Portsmouth 7, Columbus Linden and Cleveland West Tech 6, Canton Lincoln and Dayton Roosevelt 3, and Cleveland St. Joseph, Salem, Newark, Sandusky and Urbana 1.

CLASS A — Ayersville 9, Portsmouth East 6, Kingman 5, Northwestern (Wayne) 3; Frazeyburg, Salem Local, Youngstown Liberty and Convoy Crestview 2; and Old Washington, Stanton Local, Castalia Margaretta, Ames - Bern, Paint Valley and Belle Center 1.

Cincinnati Elder showed power against out-of-state competition last week, defeating third-ranked Covington (Ky.) Catholic by 79-57. Dayton Roosevelt opened defense of its Class AA crown Monday night by swamping Dayton Oakwood 58-37 in the district meet.

Belle Center's Dick Ricketts ended the season with 621 points in 19 games, an average of 32.6. In four years he counted 1,926 in 78 tilts for a 24.9 mark. The sharpshooter is headed for Ohio State, but Kentucky's Adolph Rupp is reported making a big pitch for the 6-1, 180-pounder.

East Liverpool's Ken Cunningham scored 31 in the 62-52 loss to Weirton, W.Va., and broke the one-season record of 412 set by his coach, Jim Harris. Cunningham scored 439 for the year in 18 games—his coach had the 412 for 27 tilts. Ken's three-year varsity total is 1,102.

Jim Bothen of Hamilton Catholic hit 22 against Springfield Catholic for a 52-game career total of 1,006. He's the third Hamilton cager to top the 1,000 mark. Others were Jim Farquhar of Hamilton Catholic, 1,127 for 77 games, and Alex Ellis of Hamilton's Big Blue, 1,105 in 73 contests.

Urbana, with a perfect 10-game football season, came right back to win 17 in a row on the hardwoods. John Bricker of Graham in Champaign County scored 39 points, getting his last fielder with four seconds to go, to beat Bellefontaine 62-60.

And Bill Hannon's fielder with four seconds left in an overtime gave Springfield Catholic a 56-55 win over Hamilton Catholic. Tony Vedova, guard for Wittenberg last year, coached the Springfield Catholics to a 13-5 record, their best since 1953.

Here's Final Count

For Ohio Cage Teams

Ohioan Awaits Space Try

By Howard Benedict
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—In the gray dawn one day this spring—if all goes according to plan—a good-looking young man will walk across the concrete deck of launch pad 26A with the bright lights of this spaceport gleaming on his silver space suit.

He'll climb the stairs of a red and white tower to a cramped, bell-shaped capsule. He'll wiggle through the hatch and settle into a couch fitted to every contour of his body.

The hatch will close, and his earphones will buzz as the count-down progresses on the 63-foot Redstone rocket beneath him.

When the seconds tick away to zero, he will feel a tremendous jolt as the powerful Redstone engine ignites.

If all goes right, the capsule will hurtle 115 miles high and land 290 miles down the Atlantic craft.

tracking range 16 minutes after blastoff. Peak speed will be 4,200 miles an hour.

This young space pilot will become the man of the hour. His name will be recorded in headlines and history books.

The glory will go to one of three men: John Herschel Glenn Jr., Virgil Ivan Grissom or Alan Bartlett Shepard Jr. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has selected this trio to train for the United States' first manned suborbital flight, expected in April or May. All are brilliant men, skilled test pilots and extraordinary physical specimens.

The oldest, most experienced of the group is Glenn, 39, a Marine Lieutenant Colonel from New Concord, Ohio.

Like Grissom and Shepard, Glenn is an expert at wringing the bugs out of all types of aircraft.

He has chalked up more than 5,100 hours flying time, 1,600 in jets. He flew 59 fighter bomber missions in the Pacific in World War II and 100 missions in Korea, gunning down three Communist MIGs near the Yalu River in the last nine days of fighting. He holds five Distinguished Flying Crosses and an Air Medal with 18 clusters.

"I wouldn't trade places with any guy in the world," said the colonel at a news conference. "We've been looking forward to this day for some time. And it's an understatement to say that I'm happy. However we've tried to play down the 'first' aspect."

"We have continually thought of ourselves as a seven-man team. The nearer we got to launch day, the more important each member of the team becomes."

The four astronauts not chosen for the first test will be eligible for later, perhaps even more ambitious, space missions.

Whether the next capsule will be manned is being determined now by NASA officials studying data from the last Redstone test, which boosted Ham the space chimp on a successful 156 mile high flight.

The rigorous training the astronauts have undergone at various test centers across the country has upset normal family life. "I've spent so much time on the road," Glenn said, "that I've had to be re-introduced to my wife and two kids."

His wife is the former Anna Margaret Caster of New Concord. The children are John David, 14, and Carolyn 13.

Deadlock Nears

On Highway Issue

CLEVELAND (AP)—The suburb of Beachwood and Ohio Highway Department officials appear close to a deadlock over the outer belt east—part of the proposed North-South Ohio Freeway.

Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter met with Beachwood officials Monday and urged them to put through a consent ordinance for the highway. Porter told the officials the project would "go a long way toward alleviating unemployment in this area."

At issue is the plan for an interchange at Chagrin Boulevard. Beachwood Mayor Vincent J. Havin said the suburb could not go along with state plans for half a cloverleaf, plus ramps to handle traffic to and from the freeway. Beachwood wants a full cloverleaf or possibly a five-lane bridge over the freeway at Chagrin Boulevard. The officials say this would prevent the backing up of Chagrin Boulevard traffic at the interchange.

Shawnee Scout Group

Will Meet Wednesday

LISBON — The monthly round-table meeting of the Shawnee Boy Scout District will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Salem Methodist Church. Troop 44 and Cub Pack 44 of the church will be hosts.

Troop 44 will demonstrate "cave-man cooking" and show slides of the Sandy - Beaver Trail. A program for all cub masters and assistants will be presented by Roland Herron of Salem.

All committee members, institutional representatives, den mothers and adults interested in scouting in the Shawnee District may attend.

Dean Senafenes of Lisbon will be general chairman of the meeting.

Charge Dismissed

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Jack Mokry, president of Local 321 of the American Federation of Musicians, has decided not to pursue an embezzlement charge against the former local secretary-treasurer, Ray Creech. The charge was dismissed in Municipal Court Monday, but Mokry gave no reason immediately. Creech, 32, Franklin band leader, had been charged with taking $2,360 in union funds.

The Quiz Shows Return

It's estimated that there will be 45 hours a week of quiz game shows on the television networks by April, a prospect that augurs toil and moil for the network "police units" which are duty bound to keep television surgically clean.

Marie Torre

Network censors, you may remember, came into being at the height of the great quiz show scandal, when it became apparent even to network vice presidents that something had to be done to eliminate deceitful practices on TV.

NOW THAT the quiz game shows are back, and in greater number than ever before — they consume 37 weekly hours of network TV, at the present — it seems as good a time as any to take stock of the precautionary measures.

At CBS, we found the byword to be "Eliminate Temptation!" What constitutes temptation? By CBS's definition, anything worth more than $500.

"No cash prize or item of merchandise to any one contestant can exceed $500," said Joseph Ream, vice president of program practices. "Lavish prizes are taboo."

This is but one of the efforts intended to reduce the possibility of hanky panky at CBS. Another is the signing of a warranty by every quiz game producer, who must give a written promise that he neither knows of nor has entered into any manner of deception.

Also, CBS has placed itself in charge of acquiring the gifts that are awarded on the program.

THIS ISN'T the rule at NBC, which publicly disapproved of the wholesale scrapping of quiz game shows by CBS late in '59. The amputation of one of "the oldest and best-liked program forms," said NBC, "was not the answer to television's difficulties."

Rather than take drastic action, NBC instituted a standards and practices department.

"Unlike CBS," said department Vice President Lee Jahncke, "we don't think you can place a dollar value on a contestant's honesty or temptation."

"There's no limit on our prizes, which have gone as high as $75,000, I think, on 'Jackpot Bowling.' The value of the prizes offered on the specific shows depends on each program's budget."

NBC'S OPERATION includes full-time "detectives," who spot check the quiz games.

"Sometimes they interview contestants directly after they've appeared on our shows, sometimes they mosey around backstage," said Jahncke. "We also require contestants to sign state m e n t s. Failure to disclose payola, and such, being a federal crime, we require contestants to sign affidavits."

"Our system must work," remarked Jahncke. "At least we have yet to catch anybody who's done anything wrong."

ABC, it should be noted, has no police unit. It's never needed one, the network says, adding that its prizes are too small to induce hanky panky.

RECOVERING from surgery since mid-December, Red Skelton returns to TV March 14, with Ed Wynn as guest.

"Maverick" is in its last season, if ABC officials make good the threat to drop it, their reason being that the series has "run its course." Lost its sense of humor, too!

The 10-11 Wednesday night time period following "The Perry Como Show" is where the sponsorless Dinah Shore may be placed next season. Two hours of singers, and "nice" singers at that, would seem a bit much, thought!

Hugh O'Brian, interpreter of the rugged "Wyatt Earp," stars in his guest appearance as martyr John Honeyman in "The Secret Rebel" on "Our American Heritage" March 11.

Plans Detailed For 'Air Alert'

The next national air alert will be April 28 from 4 to 4:30 p. m., members of the Midland Civil Defense Council were told at a meeting Saturday night in the Borough Building.

Daniel Orlando, director, asked the public to co-operate. He reported Saturday's meeting the "best attended and most progressive" since the unit was organized.

New members include Ernest Gengarella, Victor Presutti, James J. Pantoni, Clement F. Newtz and Anthony J. Pantoni.

Volunteers still are needed in the emergency ambulance corps — the most important service in the CD — Orlando said. Anyone with a station wagon is asked to contact Orlando and a stretcher will be issued to him.

Several firms and organizations who have recently offered their services in case of an emergency include Gengarella Brothers trucking firm of Midland, the Atomic Boat Club of Industry and the Ferguson Bus Co. at Fairview.

Orlando said that "with co-operation of men like these, our community surely will be on top."

Next meeting will be March 25.

Ambridge Youths Attend Session Of Group In Midland

The Christian Youth Fellowship of Midland was host to the Ambridge MYF Sunday night at the Midland First Presbyterian Church.

The meeting opened with prayer led by Richard Palmer, president of the Midland group, followed by group singing led by Allen Haggerty, adult advisor. Clarence Herter was piano accompanist.

The young people participated in the worship led by Amy Wilson and Bonnie McNeillie. Games were supervised by Janice Castelli, chairman.

Refreshments were served by the host group, assisted by Mrs. John McNeillie and Mrs. Jack Haggerty, counselors.

A brief officers' meeting was held. Plans were outlined for fund-raising projects.

The next meeting will be Sunday at 6 p. m. at the Midland Methodist Church. Joan Rasillo and Jean Herter will be in charge of worship. About 40 attended a dance sponsored by the CYF Friday evening at the Midland Hi-Spot Youth Center.

Elkton Mothers Will Plan Party

Plans for an Easter party for the children will be discussed at a meeting of the Elkton Mothers Club Thursday at the school. A coverdish dinner will be served at noon.

Boy Scout Troop 108 will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Parish Hall. George Eells is scoutmaster.

Cub Pack 108 will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. George Eells. The boys will work on projects.

The commission officers and official board of the Elkton Methodist church will meet Thursday night at 7:30 at the Lisbon Methodist Church.

A study class will meet at the church Friday night at 7:30. The Rev. William L. Brown is the leader.

The youth membership class will meet at the church Saturday afternoon at 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leipper of Greenford visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Jones.

Mrs. Delmar Harold entertained a group of friends Saturday evening.

Mrs. George Becki is a patient at Salem City Hospital.

Taverns Given Notice Banning Drinks For 8

Taverns received official notification Monday to shut off the sale of drinks to eight men classified as habitual drunks by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's letter warning the tavern operators to ban further sales to the habituals was distributed in the downtown area by Patrolman Charles Winters while cruisers delivered the letters to the operators in other parts of the city.

The mayor acted under an old "posting law" which requires taverns and other vendors to post the list of habituals in their places. Judge Chertoff asked the mayor to invoke the section of the city code because he said he "has been appalled" by the repeated appearance of the men on intoxication charges.

Site For Skyscraper Picked In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The federal government says it will build its proposed $40 million skyscraper office building on the site of the Central Armory, near Cleveland City Hall. Selection of the site on the southeast corner of Lakeside Avenue at E. 6th Street was made known Monday night in Washington, where the decision was made by the General Services Administration.

The state-owned armory occupies about half the city block on which the 15 to 20-story office building is to go up. The GSA stipulated that it will be up to the city to acquire the site, clear it and make it available to the federal government at a reasonable price.

Girl Scout Council Finishes Plans For Week Observance

Tentative plans for the observance of "Girl Scout Week" were outlined at the meeting of the East Liverpool Area Girl Scout Council Monday night in the conference room of The Review. Twenty-two attended.

Eichmann's Case Seen Pointing To New Court Need

CLEVELAND (AP)—An expert on international law says the controversial nature of the Adolf Eichmann case points up the need for a new international court or agency where crimes against human rights can be punished.

The present World Court limits itself to disputes between nations. Prof. Oliver C. Schroeder Jr., who teaches international law at Western Reserve University, told a meeting of the Cleveland chapter of Sigma Delta Chi. He addressed the journalistic group Monday. Prof. Schroeder noted that Israel did not exist as a sovereign state at the time of Eichmann's mass exterminations of Jews in Germany under Hitler during World War II. But the prosecutors probably will contend that the Jewish community in Palestine was "in the nature of a state" and could punish Eichmann for crimes against its people, Schroeder said.
